

Using IPET to Treat a Herd

Group and family psychotherapeutic intervention with IPET

This 4-hour workshop focuses on using the Interpersonal Equine Therapy© (IPET) model for therapeutic intervention with families and specific groups. Systems analysis is presented with particular attention to an interactional understanding of role dynamics, as modelled by horse social behavior, to facilitate recognition, orientation, discussion, and therapeutic intervention.

For more information, please contact:

Interpersonal Therapy, LLC

www.interpersonalequinetherapy.com

(920) 559-2278

sdriver@gmail.com